Introduction

Some people have opinions that literature is just a matter of fun and enjoyment. This opinion is not completely right because literature is more than just fun and enjoyment. According to Hudson (1958) "Literature is the expression of life through the medium of language. It can be considered as something essential since it contains about real life". It means that literature can be a portrait of human life because the content of literature, especially a novel, can be a description of the experience of human nature that is reflected in the language. It can be said that there is a close relationship between literature and human life. Through literature, the writer can enrich our knowledge and experiences since literature is a reflection of human life. So, reading simply doesn't enjoy the pleasure and excitement, but it candig out meaning inside because literature is the medium for learning about life.

There have been various attempts to define literature. Based on Kelley Griffith (2010) "Literature is not definable by properties, such as Rhyme, Meter, Plot, Setting, and Characterization". It assumes that the literature can be identified by how people use it. People use literature not to get things done but as objects of pleasure in themselves.

Based on Tabish Khair & Sebastien Doubinsky (2011) "To understand this we have to state two obvious facts. First, literature is written in the language. Second, literature is not just about language". It means that literature is written in the language of what is capable and will not be limited to language.

A movie is a work of art in the form of moving images that are put together so that formed into a story. The movie is also an important mass communication media to provide information about the reality of life. According to Grant Horner (2010), state "Movie is perhaps the most perfect mirror. the statement shows that we have to show ourselves what we are. But like all mirrors, the mirror of the movie is always in some sense, a distortion. The sense depends on each person to understand and know the situation.

The characters are the people in the story or the novel. The characters make up the central interest of many dramas or novels. Characters are also very important in the story, it is can make the story keep moving, without characters the story cannot be performed as a literary work. The character can be a person, animal, or anything that can represent the story flow of the movie. According to Roback Abraham Aaron (2010) "Character is gifted only for the routine in life actuated mainly by habit. The character with judgment and reason in the foreground are known for their sagacity, pursuit of the economy, and practical bent of mind." It means that character can be determined based on the habits of each individual.

Joan Chittister (2005) stated, "Struggle is part of life. In fact, the struggle is an unavoidable part of life". According to Cynthia A. Barnhart(2008) "Struggle is made great efforts with the body, try-hard, work hard, against difficulties". It means that struggle is an effort to get something against difficulties with the body, try-hard, and work hard.

According to K.M. Johnson (2009) stated: "Struggle is an exertion, strain or endeavor". The struggle is working hard to achieve our goals and sometimes there is a breakdown in the process. People just try to do their best for a better life to achieve our life goals.

From the statement above, the writer concludes a character in the movie is a person who has a strong determination and struggles in her life. The struggle occurs when a human being goes through temptation and tries to get out of their own problems or a competition to get something and endeavor to get it by against difficulties and try hard until all is achieved.

The struggle is an interesting thing in character. Many characters can show their struggle in the movie. Struggle shows the extent to which characters can achieve great effort. In this paper, the writer will analyze the main character's struggle in Don't Breathe Movie. The reason is that the writer wants to know how the main character's struggle to survive. Based on the above reasons, the writer chose The Struggle of Rocky to Survive in Don't Breathe Movie Directed by Fede Alvarez as the title of the study.

Research Methods

In this paper, the writer uses a qualitative descriptive method to analyze this film, a descriptive qualitative method used by the writer in analyzing and exposing the data obtained. According to Agung(2016) "Descriptive qualitative research is one of the types of research included in this type of qualitative research. The purpose of this study is to reveal events or facts, circumstances, phenomena, variables, and circumstances that occur when the study takes place by presenting what happened. This research interprets and describes the data concerned with the current situation, attitudes, and views that occur in a society, the conflict between two or more circumstances, the relationship between variables that arise, differences between existing facts and their influence on a condition, etc.”

The analytical procedure is watching and understanding the film, collecting data consisting of struggles, choosing theories to analyze data, analyzing data using theory, making the conclusion of the analysis, and the last is arranges the final assignment.

Summary of the Story

Rocky, Alex, and Money are three Detroit criminals who make a living by breaking into homes and stealing stuff. Rocky wanted to move to California with her youngersister, Diddy. It is because Diddy is nurtured by her mother and her alcoholic mother.

Money gets info from one of his contacts about an old man who lives in an abandoned Detroit neighborhood with more than $ 300,000 in cash in his house. it was given to him as a settlement after his daughter was killed in a car accident. It was said that the man was a war veteran. He lives alone after his daughter was killed in a car accident. After some deliberation, they (Money, Alex, and Rocky) decide to break into the house at night, after stalking it out during the day and discovering that the man is in fact blind.

At night, Rocky, Alex, and Money came into the house. They found that all the entrances locked, Rocky saw that there was a window without a trellis that would fit her into the house. Rocky enters the house through the window and lets Alex and Money in. They search the house for the money but are unable to find it. They thought it must be behind a locked door. Money shoots the lock. The noise wakes up the Blind Man, who quickly disarms Money and kills him with his own gun. Rocky hides in a closet, where she sees the Blind Man open a safe to check on his money. After he leaves, Alex finds Rocky in the closet, and they open the safe and take the money, amazed to discover at least $1 million inside. Meanwhile, the Blind Man discovers two pairs of shoes downstairs and realizes that Money was not the only intruder. There are others trapped in the house and try to get out of the house.

Rocky and Alex avoided the Blind man and entered the basement. There, they found a woman who's been chained up to the wall. the woman shows them a newspaper article. It reveals that her name is Cindy, and she's the woman who accidentally killed the Blind Man's daughter, but she was acquitted. Rocky and Alex release her and try to escape toward the cellar door. Unfortunately, the Blind Man is there when they open it. He shoots at Rocky and Alex with Money's gun but mistakenly kills Cindy instead. He weptbitterly over her body. Because Cindy was carrying his child to replace the one she killed.

Rocky and Alex rushed back to the basement while the man turned off the lights, knocking him into the dark. After a difficult struggle, Alex hits the man and they run upstairs.

After blocking the basement door. They fled to the room, where they were trapped by a barred window. Rocky came out of the room through the ventilation duct, while the dog who woke up attacked Alex. After that, the dog chased Rocky through the vent, and she is captured by Blind Man. Rocky woke up in the basement, chained in the same spot as Cindy. She tells the Blind Man that this will not bring his daughter back. He says that is not entirely true. Cindy was carrying a child to replace for the one she killed, and he would have let her go once she gave birth. He says that Rocky must take Cindy's place. He prepares to impregnate Rocky, but luckily, Alex has gotten up and grabbed a hammer. He beats the Blind Man over the head and frees Rocky. They handcuff the man to a pole.

Rocky and Alex tried to pass the front door. However, The Blind Man reawakens, escapes his restraints, and shoots Alex, but Rocky escapes outside, pursued by the dog. Although she manages to trap the dog in her car trunk, she is captured again by the Blind Man and brought back to his house. Rocky disorients the Blind Man by setting off his house's loud alarm system, then beats him with a crowbar and pushes him into the basement. Believing he was dead, Rocky took the money and left the house before the police arrive. Rocky is now with Diddy at the Detroit airport, ready to start their new life. Rocky then sees a news report on TV, stating that the Blind Man was found alive and killed two intruders in his house. The film ends as Rocky and Diddy leave through the departures gate.
